Counseling Corner

Join our school counselor, Ms. Bushey, for a Lunch & Learn on November 20th at 12:30pm. We will be discussing social media use and the effects of technology on our students. Please bring a lunch. Dessert will be provided! Additional parent workshops will be offered in February, April, and May on other topics. A Save-the-Date with more information will be coming home soon!

Trevett will be collecting non-perishable food items for Henrico Christmas Mother from November 12-16. Please send in your items and place them in the shopping carts in the lobby. Henrico Christmas Mother provides items to families, seniors, and disabled adults in Henrico County. Please help us support this great organization

Shop the Scholastic Book Fair!

Book Fair runs daily from Nov 2 – Nov 8

Shop after school on Nov 7 until 4:30

Book Fair is open on Thursday Nov 8 after school from 4:00-7:30.

Focus on Safety

Please remember all visitors must sign in when they enter the building and sign out when they exit the building for safety reasons.

Digital Citizenship: All students, K-5th grade, participate in our Digital Citizenship curriculum. Additional resources are available for you to view at home to ensure your student's safety while using the internet.
